Program Information

Requirements for admission to early childhood	Applicants must meet the

(EC) degree program. Include admission requirements	following minimum criteria in order to apply for admission: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Preliminary course work: EC-MC and MC-EA applicants must have a minimum of 24 credits in which grade points have been earned (including transfer credits). EC-A applicants must have a minimum of 40 credits in which grade points have been earned (including transfer credits). All applicants to DES programs must have successfully completed EDS 203, or have successfully completed and/or be concurrently enrolled in EDS 203 and EDS 206 at the time of application for admission in order to apply. Combined cumulative grade point average: EC-MC and MC-EA applicants must have earned a combined cumulative GPA of 2.85 in all academic work taken prior to applying for admission. EC-A applicants must have earned a combined cumulative GPA of 2.75. Combined cumulative GPAs include transfer grade points averaged with grade points earned at UWL. For applicants with prior post-secondary degrees, the grades from the entire previous course of study will be included in the combined cumulative GPA. Other factors that may be considered in admissions decisions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Writing statement: EC-MC and MC-EA applicants must submit a writing statement based Progress through professional course work (EDS 203, EDS 206, EDS 308, EDS 311): EC-MC and MC-EA applicants only - Courses completed or in progress may be considered when there are more applicants for admission than class sizes allow. 3. Experience working with children: EC-MC and MC-EA applicants may be asked to describe their experience working with children and/or to provide contact information for references. (See "admission requirements" on the Department of Educational Studies website for specifics on what information will need to be supplied in the application for admission.) 4. Request for an admission waiver: Applicants who have significant extenuating circumstances that prevent them from meeting the minimum requirement above may provide a detailed letter (in addition to the other required information) requesting that the GPA requirement be waived and documenting why they should still be considered for admission. Documentation should include evidence to support the request for consideration (example: how they plan to change behaviors/GPA outcomes and raise their GPA to the graduation requirement level). Applicants must also provide contact information for one reference who can support their request and who can speak to their ability to be successful in the DES teacher education program. A request for a waiver is not a guarantee of admission. Waivers will be considered depending on space availability, the nature of the request, and the likelihood for success in the program as evaluated by the admissions committee.
